

Jade Zoe

Jade Zoe is a Melbourne based DJ, Producer, Event Curator and Presenter. Her journey started at the Favela Rock parties back in 2010 where she played her first set. Since that day, Jade has held down residencies in London, played Festivals in Europe, interviewed the Biggest names in music and helped to define the sound and aesthetic of Australia's contemporary club scene.

Jade is known for her genre-bending and dance floor friendly sets that take in RNB, Trap, Hip Hop, Dancehall, Grime, Pop and everything in between (and on the edges). This has seen her support Danny Brown, play Pitch Festival and Let them Eat Cake (2016 & 2017), and appear on Triple J and FBI radio in Australia, and Radar Radio in London. Jade also co-founded the ground-breaking and hugely popular CRXZY SXXY CXXL party which showcased the very best of local talent and contributed to creating inclusive spaces within the Australian Music community. Not stopping there Jade co-created another party inspired by the UK sound, TOP GIRL.

And as a presenter for Complex AU, Jade acts as an advocate for Australian Music, championing the hottest- home-grown talent and also connecting with international artists. Recent highlights include flying to New York to interview (and become bffs with) Alicia Keys to catching Craig David at Notting Hill Carnival. When Jade's not spinning, you'll catch her eating pho or sipping mojitos in the sun.
